Homelands

Now here's early notice for March 14 next. Mick Quilliam's 4th solo exhibition at Art Mob "Homelands" will feature his new works with imagery of his Tasmanian locale. Plan your Easter around this one.

New Works

If you think the gallery is looking full then you are right. We are ready for a huge season over the next 6 months with the best of Australia's Aboriginal fine art. A brief selection features on the back page but for more check out Stock Works 16 & 17 on the web site as well as any changes to the left of our home page.

Dennis Nona

Featuring in both 2007 & 2008 as one of the Top 50 Most Collectible Australian artists, the overall winner in the 24th Telstra NATSIAA, visual arts winner in the 2007 Deadly Awards this Torres Strait islander artist will be here in Hobart to launch "Zugula!" on Friday November 16th. The travelling exhibition complete with the 2 bronze sculptures featured on the reverse of the invitation has already arrived. Don't miss this opportunity to meet the artist and purchase one of his limited edition works.

Desert Mob

The works purchased from this landmark exhibition have now arrived and include paintings by Margaret Napangardi Brown from Yuendumu, Evonne Kunoth and Dulcie Sharp Napaltjarri from Alice Springs and Elaine Warnatjura Lane from Blackstone. Congratulations again to Ruby Williamson who now has a painting in the prestigious Derwent Collection 2.

Hobart's Utopia

Art Mob proudly hosted Barbara Weir, her son Fred Torres and his children along with Gloria Petyarre at Barbara's recent solo "Blowing in the Wind". A wonderful series of works in 3 different styles were admired by a huge audience. Gloria sang her Mountain Devil Lizard song and it inspired her to paint her totemic painting in the IXL Atrium the following Sunday in front of quite a crowd. Not many realised that this lady is perhaps the most widely collected and admired artist in Australia today.

Culture Warriors

This exhibition at NGA, Canberra is surely a blockbuster! Christine Christophersen is ecstatic about having been selected. Her highly commended painting from the 2003 Telstra exhibition "I Could Not Dance" arrives at our gallery in the next few days and is available for purchase. This was one of her early exhibition entries and made a big impression on Euan in Darwin at that time.
