New artists on web site

We are continually adding artists to the list where we have multiple works by key artists. Pauline Sunfly went up a week ago with 4 works and 2 have already sold. Buy it if you like it as they sell! Also new up are Willy Tjungurrayi, Kathleen Paddoon and a group of hollow log coffins.

Allan Mansell

Local Tasmanian artist Allan Mansell has cranked up his press again. It's great to see some new prints and a development in his career. He has been selected along with 9 other artists from 5 locations to produce a folio of prints commemorating 400 years of Dutch contact with Australia.

Fabrianne Nampitjinpa Peterson

Last month Fabrianne's complex Willy Wagtail Dreaming featured on the reverse of the newsletter. It now resides in northern NSW. Our apologies to those 5 clients who ordered it but missed out. Check out the back page this time.

Yuendumu focus

A great bunch of paintings arrived from Yuendumu after Euan's recent trip. One of Judy Watson's works features on the Pink invitation. Other artists included are Betsy Lewis, Paddy Stewart & Shorty Jangala Robertson.

Kaltjiti Rugs

An exclusive range has been selected and is known as the Gallery Range. These are exceptional designs and we have featured them on our web site. Check them out.

Evelyn Pultara

After winning the 2005 Telstra art award for General Painting Evelyn was talking to Art Mob's gallery director, Euan Hills. He asked why she only painted bush yarn stories. Evelyn stated "After that old lady (referring to her Aunt Emily Kame Knqwarreye) passed away there was no-one left to tell that story. So I have to do it". What wonderful continuance of culture!
