Yawarr's new home

Dennis Nona's massive linocut print that featured in his solo exhibition Zugulal in November 2007 at our gallery has been a highlight in the gallery and the IXL Atrium until very recently. It's now the pride of place at 188 Collins Street here in Hobart and creating quite a wow factor. Thanks to all who helped move it in and out of the gallery each day!

Telstra Art Awards entrants

We have 3 artists for whom we have submitted some very interesting paintings for this years NATSIAA in Darwin in August. Ros Langford, Mick Quilliam and Pansy Napangardi are all waiting anxiously to know if they have made the final 100 or so entries. We wish them well.

Ronnie Tjampitjinpa ILB

The November/December issue of the Indigenous Law Bulletin featured a number of strong paintings from Pintupi artist Ronnie Tjampitjinpa. Not only did he make it to the Top 50 Most Collectible Artists list again this year he also got top coverage in this very important document from the Law Faculty of the University of NSW.

Happy 7th Birthday Art Mob

Remember the Balgo Hills 2002 exhibition that we launched with? Times pass and the gallery has grown thanks to all of you out there. Call in for some bubbles at the end of a day to help us celebrate.

Mick Quilliam's exhibition

Again, it was another very successful solo exhibition for our local Tasmanian. There are just a few works left from a bunch that have now been sent to their new owners in far flung places. Mick's off to raft the Fitzroy River in the Kimberley so we are sure that will provide some interesting inspiration for next year's show.

New talent

On the prompting of the art centre coordinator of Ikuntji Artists at Haasts Bluff we gave Walter Tjungurrayi Jugadai his very first sale! This special piece depicting a sacred place of his grandfather at Yarapilangu is available from us for $2400 (183 x 91cm).

New Emily Pwerle's

Emily Pwerle started painting in 2004 and is a rising star in the Aboriginal art world. The complexity of her patterns that symbolise women's body painting designs have strong appeal and they just don't last long in the gallery. We have some gorgeous new works in stock that you can view onsite or online on our website.
