APRIL 2015

AGWA VISITS ART MOB

The director of the Art Gallery of Western Australia, Stefano Carboni, along with 10 of their Foundation members, visited us in Hobart recently. As a result their trustees approved the purchase of 3 large paintings by the late Queenie McKenzie, Kudditji Kngwarreye and Natalie Puantulura, along with a tunga (bark basket) by the late Jean Baptiste Apuatimi.

RONNIE TJAMPITJINPA

Famous Pintupi artist Ronnie Tjampitjinpa's works will feature in a solo exhibition launching at the Art Gallery of NSW on April 4th. He was one of the youngest male artists in the group that commenced painting at Papunya in 1971 and he continues to paint today. We have added 4 of his beautiful Rain Dreaming paintings to our extensive stock of his works.

EXHIBITIONS

It's hard to believe but it's now 13 years since we launched our first exhibition "Balgo Hills 2002". Last month featured our Top 20 - Art Mob's most popular artists from 2014. Congratulations to all especially to our local Tasmanian artists Mick Quilliam and Julian Oates who took out the top 2 positions. Special thanks go to the art centres who helped fill the gaps - Papulankutja Artists at Blackstone with Janet Nyumitji Forbes, Munupi Arts with Debbie and Karina Coombes, and Papunya Tjupi with Candy Nakamarra Nelson. This month we launch the first Australian solo exhibition for Murdie Nampijinpa Morris from Nyirripi with her exquisite Malikiarra Jukurpa (Two Dogs Dreaming) paintings.

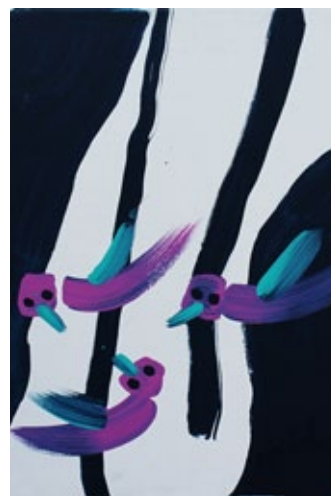

EASTER SALE

We can hardly move in the gallery - just too much stock! So our HUGE Easter sale is on again! Check out Emma's sale selection online or make us a reasonable offer on any of our stock works. There's no charge for packing and no freight costs for Australian clients.

ANJOLU

Another very early Art Mob exhibition was in December 2003 - "Slowly the Horizon Unfolds". This was Worora artist Anjolu Heather Umbagai's very first Aboriginal art gallery exhibition and it certainly established her credentials. We have since shown her in two more shows. Sadly Anjolu passed away two years ago but her legacy goes on. We bought all of her remaining work recently and will have them available in the very near future.

DENNIS NONA ARCHIVE RELEASE

Dennis Nona's managers recently released some of his archival prints. These works were first in edition, artist's proofs, publisher's proof, trial proof or simply the last available. It was exciting to see some of his historic pieces again and find new homes for them. Keep an eye on our web site for another batch that we will be adding.
