AUG 2014

NEW WORKS

Recent additions to our stock include a family of mimih spirit carvings coming from Maningrida, 3 boomerangs from Bill Harney, a fantastic addition to our Nyiripi collection by Christine Napanangka Michaels, 2 superb paintings by Joseph Zimran Tjangala and a group of 13 small Seven Sisters Dreaming paintings by Alma Nungarrayi Granites from Yuendumu.

JULIAN OATES SOLO

Put August 29th in your diary as our local Tasmanian Aboriginal star artist Julian Oates will launch his second solo exhibition "Quela's Eden" with us then. He is promising us his first large major painting 1.1 x 1.8 metres along with about a dozen 60 x 90cm pieces. If it's anything like his usual success these will walk right out the door.

RESALE ROYALTY & INDIGENOUS ART CODE UPDATE

This section is deliberately left blank. Not really... Minister for Arts, Senator George Brandis, and his department have not announced anything since the resale royalty review submissions closed over 12 months ago – nor has any direction been announced regarding the change from voluntary to mandatory status for the Code. Clearly some people don't consider these important issues.

ART ESCAPES

Euan's off to Darwin for the 31st Telstra National Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Awards that are announced on Friday August 8th. It's always a good time to catch up with artists, art centres and galleries in wonderful warmth. The Darwin Art Fair is also a key attraction. Art tourism gets many mentions so Art Mob's putting it in practice with a trip from Kununurra to Broome via Purnululu, Halls Creek, Wolfe Creek crater, Balgo Hills, Mulan, Lake Gregory, Fitzroy Crossing and Derby with some keen Aboriginal art fans from Seattle. Back home on August 21st. Emma will be managing the gallery so please keep her busy with your enquiries and orders!

DACOU DREAMING

August starts early with this exhibition launching on Friday 1st at 6pm with famed artists Gloria Petyarre and Barbara Weir present. Fred Torres, the director of DACOU (Dreaming Art Centre of Utopia) will launch this exhibition of paintings sourced from his gallery. His role in the care and promotion of his family and other great artists from Utopia is to be applauded. He is the son of Barbara Weir and thus grandson of the late Minnie Pwerle. The show has 30 smaller works at very attractive prices and some larger very collectable works. It's live and selling now on our website – be quick!

JOSEPH TJANGALA ZIMRAN NEW WORKS

Joseph's paintings depict the dreaming handed down to Joseph from his father, Smithy Tjampitjinpa Zimran, who originated from the Walungurru (Kintore) area. They depict three massive bushfires travelling parallel with each other cutting through the landscape, leaving giant black scars as they burn through the tinder dry scrub spread across the sand dunes.
