MICK QUILLIAM INSPIRED

We just don't seem to be able to keep our local Tasmanian Aboriginal artist Mick Quilliam's work in stock! This is not surprising after his November sell out show. His last few sales have been to Florida, Darwin and locally in Hobart. His first painting of the blue penguins features.

BIG FEBRUARY EVENTS

On Thursday 13th Adrian Newstead of Coo-ee Aboriginal Art in Sydney will be at Art Mob's gallery for the Hobart launch of his book "The Dealer is the Devil" and he will also open our February exhibition "Dealing in Dots". This exhibition will feature paintings from our dotty duo – Papunya artists Pansy Napangardi and Fabrianne Nampitjinpa Peterson (who will be present at the opening). Bring $50 to get your signed copy of this insider's history of the Aboriginal art trade. Bring even more for a wonderful art work!

TOURIST TAT

Our January blockbuster exhibition, inspired by some obtuse criticism of the "Australia" exhibition at the Royal Academy of Arts in London, looked magnificent and attracted much comment. It was our first exhibition in 12 years where the value of the art shown exceeded $500,000. It was applauded by one of the senior art curators of the National Gallery of Australia and a podcast of Euan's interview with SBS Living Black radio is up on their website.

NEW MANINGRIDA STOCK

In need of a fish trap? We can help! Or perhaps a hollow log coffin or two? Again, we have just received a fabulous range – right up to 2.82 metres high with an inspired work by Michael Gadjarwala. Plus there are some great mimi and yawk yawk figures by Owen Yalandja, Lena Yarinkura and Bob Burruwal. The two barks by John Mawurndjul are brilliant! These Arnhem Land art works are excitingly special.

HOT SUMMER SALE

Emma has declared 2014 the year of shifting stock so she is making a start with some hugely discounted pieces. There are 60 paintings that you can see from our web home page - but be quick! They are sure to find new homes rapidly!

EMILY KAME KNGWARREYE

Emily's in stock

For the first time we now have some gallery stock of one of the greatest artists from our country – the late Emily Kame Kngwarreye. These bush flower paintings of Utopia are truly superb!
