Passing of great artists

Recent weeks have seen the passing of 2 of our great artists Tjakamarra from Kintore and Naparrula from Lajamanu. They will both be sadly missed. Some will recall Naparrula's visit to Hobart where, at the opening, she danced and sang the dreamings of the whole exhibition that she had requested be placed on the floor of the gallery.

Works from Warburton

Last month we featured a painting by Myra Cooke. This region has artists producing some sensational work with Carol Golding and Nyumitja Laidlaw in particular. These complex paintings resonate with their innate knowledge of country and dreaming sites.

Top 50

A worthy panel of art aficionados has selected the 50 Most Collectable artists and these were recently published in the January edition of Australian Art Collector. Art Mob celebrates some of these artists along with others from previous lists with our exhibition launching on January 5.

New works

Tiger Palpatja, Queenie McKenzie, Mick Quilliam, Gloria Petyarre, Fabrianne

Nampitjinpa Peterson... The list goes on. We strive to have the best stocked range of Aboriginal fine art in Australia. And you can find it all on the web site if a physical trip to the gallery is not possible.

Black & white

The Henry Jones Art Hotel transformed their signature restaurant Henry's by hanging a wonderful selection of art from Art Mob as a black and white exhibition. Sam Juparulla Wickman's piece above the piano is a bit of fun!

This young man continues to amaze with the fineness of his dot painting. His current stock piece depicts the effect of weather from the past on the geology and geography of the central desert region.
