Exhibitions

January is "Ikuntji Icons 2011" - new works from Ikuntji Artists of Haasts Bluff, February is a Tiwi Islands month, March is Papunya Tjupi Art month and Mick Quilliam gets another solo exhibition with us in April. Our current show is "2010 Revisited" that showcases selected stock works from many regions of the country - it changes by the day as works sell.

New works

In recent days we've had new paintings in from Ros Langford and Julian Oates - but now both have sold. However there are always new pieces arriving - including Kudditji Kngwarreye, Karina Coombes and David Wallace. Keep an eye on our stock works web pages.

Busy Hobart

It's been flat out here over the past few weeks with locals finding time to visit the gallery and beat the yachties from the Rolex Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race to the best of our stock. Heaps more visitors from many parts of the globe have called in so we have kept the freight companies busy! It was an honour to supply a painting for the retirement of one of the senior Rolex executives recently.

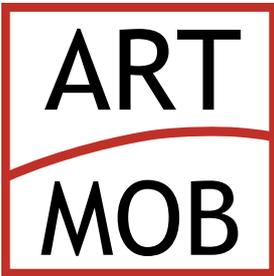

Menagerie

Some of you may have seen the travelling exhibition "Menagerie" that features indigenous animal sculpture. Our gallery seems to have its own menagerie with owls from Tiwi artist Patrick Freddy Puruntatameri, Dennis Nona's stingrays and turtle, David Wallace's bush turkey, crow man and crested pigeon - it goes on! If you need an additional low maintenance pet then let us help you!

Local artists

Ros Langford's graduation exhibition "Skin to Blanket" was a huge success and her works continue to keep finding new homes. The Oates family and Mick Quilliam have been kept busy - particularly with smaller paintings. These are very affordable and make great gifts! Let us know if you'd like selection details.

Kundarmarraka Rockhole, also known as Lake Maitland, east/west of Willuna. This is the country painted by Lance. Rich with creek inlets, claypans, food plains and abundant bushfoods which grow on the banks of the lake. Lance says that this country is rich with gold and is his family's native title land.
