MAY 2015

MAY EXHIBITION

Fred Torres, grandson of the late Minnie Pwerle and son of Barbara Weir will launch "UTOPIA – from the eyes of Fred and family" on Friday May 8. This is a true blockbuster of an exhibition! Some historic pieces by Minnie, a huge Emily Pwerle, some Emily Kame Kngwarreye's plus others from Fred's family will compete with the very first release of Gloria Petyarre's 2012 series of Aknangkere Growth paintings. Don't miss this exhibition!

NO BOUNDARIES

The current exhibition at the Nevada Art Museum showcases the works of 9 senior Aboriginal men. We are very proud to have provided the Tommy Mitchell painting that its owner describes as a seminal piece. It is uplifting to see such passion and enthusiasm from the USA for our Aboriginal art. MURDIE

A quote from the Seattle client who bought #4 from 85yo Murdie Nampijinpa Morris's Two Dog Dreaming exhibition "Crazy about it, Euan!! Colors great and texture too. She painted with a fully loaded brush and there's some work underneath. We both really like it and coming stretched and ready to hang a distinct bonus." The response to our video of this show was terrific! There's still a good selection left for you to choose from.

ANJOLU

As mentioned last month, we were recently honoured to be offered the remaining stock of the late Heather Umbagai's paintings. This major body of work is well priced and is now up on our website looking amazing!

DENNIS NONA

Our first archival release of 41 of Dennis's works had a HUGE reception. The imminent release of another 70 archived works should come as a surprise! We had not even seen many of these works ourselves despite having worked with this eminent Torres Strait Islander artist for over 10 years.

NEW STOCK

Ronnie Tjampitjinpa is all the rage but watch out for his nephew Joseph Zimran Jangala from Haasts Bluff. His latest major painting has all the hallmarks of him reaching stardom! New Tiwi Islander pieces that have recently arrived include an "Off to the Footy" by Debbie Coombes, a shooting star painting by her sister Karina Coombes, a Susan Wanji Wanji and a Francesca Purantatameri. Also to hand are local paintings by Mick Quilliam, Warlpiri paintings by Alma Nungarrayi Granites and Mary Anne Michaels Nampijinpa and some lovely Pintupi paintings by Maisie Campbell Napaltjarri. See them on our stock works pages.

Waru - Bushfire Dreaming 2015
Acrylic on linen 1820 x 2440mm $14000

This painting depicts the dreaming handed down to Joseph from his father, Smithy Tjampitjinpa Zimran, who originated from the Walungurru (Kintore) area. It depicts three massive bushfires travelling parallel with each other cutting through the landscape, leaving giant black scars as they burn through the tinder dry scrub spread across the sand dunes.
