OCT 2014

BILL HARNEY EXHIBITION

Margie West, a past indigenous art curator of the Museum and Art Gallery of Northern Territory, has secured funding from the Australia Council to present a major exhibition of Wardaman elder Bill Harney's art works. Art Mob will play a major role in retrieving sold works and providing stock works to this exhibition that will be launched in Darwin and later Katherine towards the end of this year.

SUMMER SEASON

We are ready for a huge season over the next 6 months with the best of Australia's Aboriginal fine art. A brief selection of new works features on the back page but for more check out Stock Works 23 & 24 on the web site. We will be re-loading our Stock Works pages over the next few weeks so keep an eye out for new exciting pieces.

BUNDJI

Sam Juparulla Wickman will be presenting his art glass and paintings in an exhibition launching on Friday October 17th. Sam has exhibited with Art Mob before in 2005 and 2006 so it will be wonderful to see his works some 8 years on. One of his major glassworks was gifted by the Prime Minister to Queen Beatrix of the Netherlands to mark 400 years of contact between the Dutch and Australia.

NORTHERN EXPOSURE

All of the art sourced during Euan's Darwin and Kimberley trip in August has now arrived and is showing in the gallery. Paintings were sourced from the Tiwi Islands, Yuendumu, Nyirripi, Papunya, Warmun and Fitzroy Crossing. There are some works by well-known and famous artists. Don't miss them - view them in the gallery or online on our website.

JULIAN OATES

Quela's Eden, Julian Oates' second solo exhibition, was a huge success and his pieces were greatly admired and collected by many clients from around the globe! This is a real tribute to our young Tasmanian Aboriginal rising star. You can view his double page spread in the September edition of the Tasmanian Business Access newspaper!

VALE OLD ARTISTS

We mourn the passing of 2 of our special artists Tjangawa Ruby Williamson from Amata and Shorty Tjangala Robertson from Yuendumu. Art Mob was the very first gallery to exhibit Ms Williamson's paintings in late 2002 with solo exhibitions following in 2003 and 2005.
