April 2016

EMILY KAME KNGWARREYE

Lucy and Malcolm Turnbull have recently renovated the Lodge in Canberra and are hosting the COAG sessions there currently. It was great news when a picture of the dining room was posted showing a large Emily Kame Kngwarreye Yam Dreaming painting gracing the main wall. We have recently put one of Emily's final series paintings into stock. Quoting from NMA's Emily catalogue, "In a final flourish, Emily completed 24 small paintings over a period of three days in the two weeks before she died. They are unlike anything she had painted before." A national treasure!

BARBARA WEIR & MINNIE PWERLE SHOW

"Minnie Remembered" was hailed as possibly the best ever solo of Minnie Pwerle's work and was a fitting tribute to this great artist from Utopia. Her daughter, Barbara Weir, opened the exhibition on March 18th, 10 years on from Minnie's passing. Barbara painted in the atrium the following day and demonstrated her painting skills to an admiring audience.

TJAPALTJARRI BROTHERS

On September 24th 1984, a group of 9 Pintupi people walked in to Papunya from Lake McKay, having never had contact with white people. It made world headlines. Warlimpirrnga Tjapaltjarri led the group that included his brothers Thomas and Walala. All 3 started painting soon after and still continue with their enigmatic Tingari works. New pieces have just come into stock.

TIWI BIRDS

A flock of ironwood birds flew in from the Tiwi Islands recently. Tracy Puruntatameri has excelled with his sculptures that join the huge pelican pole of John Martin Tipungwuti and a small Kenny Brown Tokwampini carving.

VALE ROY WIGGAN

In March 2003 Roy Hunter Wiggan came to Hobart to show his dance totems in an exhibition "Bardi Dance Totems". The totem plus the associated song and dance is known as ilma. This was an amazing linking of Roy to past associates including Gus "the builder from Lombardina", Helen (a school teacher from Port Hedland) and local Hobartian Kim Akerman. The exhibition was a most spiritual array of totems reflecting the Bardi stories from his father and family. Sadly, Mr Wiggan passed away late last year in his late 80's.

NYIRRIPI NOW

It's 3 years exactly since we gave the Warlpiri artists of Nyirripi their first group exhibition, so to commemorate our 14th gallery birthday, it's fitting to launch Nyirripi Now 2016 on April 8th. We have selected a sensational range of paintings and included a number of the old lady's works - Murdie Nampijinpa Morris. These works are vibrant, energetic and affordable. A show not to be missed!
