May 2016

VALE RACHEL JURRA NAPALJARRI

We were saddened to hear of Napaljarri's passing early in April. She had visited Art Mob in Hobart on several occasions and was a highly regarded artist and dancer. She loved hunting – in particular porcupines, though getting honey ants was special for her as well. Her kangaroo dreaming, cave dreaming and green parrot dreaming paintings were wonderful works. We will miss her.

YIDUMDUMA BILL HARNEY BUSH PROFESSOR

This exhibition of Bill's works launches at GYRACC in Katherine on May 6. It's an amazing body of work spanning almost 30 years and Art Mob is particularly proud of having assisted curator Margie West with this project. Bill recently sent Euan's daughter Jo a painted coolamon from the coolabah tree as a baby carrier for young Walter. Art Mob carries an extensive stock of Bill's works.

DOROTHY'S DAUGHTERS

We are watching (and acquiring) new paintings by the two daughters of Dorothy Napangardi – Julie Nangala Robertson and Sabrina Nangala Robertson. They sure are "a chip off the old block". It is wonderful to see such highly collectible talent continuing in the next generation.

NEW LOCAL ARTIST

Dane Chisholm of Beaumaris, east coast Tasmania, is now showing his art at Art Mob. His intricate ink on paper drawings are a great addition to our stock. Welcome Dane.

MAY EXHIBITIONS

It's a double exhibition month! Anjolu's Birds is a themed selection of 16 paintings from the late Heather Umbagai. She was a Worrorra lady from Mowanjium in the west Kimberley and her first Australian solo exhibition was at Art Mob in 2003. Her painting style was different – almost calligraphic. These are sure to delight! In tandem, is Yuendumu & Youthful – a lovely selection of bold coloured bird paintings by 24 year old Karen Napaljarri Barnes and a group of paintings by 30 year old Steven Jupurrula Nelson that feature Janganpa Jukurpa (Brush-Tail Possum Dreaming).
