LOCKHART RIVER ARTISTS VISIT

Silas Hobson and Patrick Butcher, along with art centre manager Enoch Perazim and his son attended the opening of our January exhibition. We all learned lots about each other's country and culture. Their trip to MONA and meeting David Walsh was a highlight and Silas named 2 of his paintings Mona Roma 1 & 2.

Thursday February 2nd marks the launch of our annual Top 20 exhibition. Emma has determined who our most popular artists are – not by value – but by number of paintings sold. There are some regulars of course but also some interesting surprises! It's up to you to get them into next year's Top 20! Be here for the launch and meet 3 of our local Tasmanian Aboriginal artists.

ACTION!

Get onto our website and check out our extensive range of 30x30cm paintings. If these are too small, then there are some highly discounted paintings in our Mid Summer sale. Remember that the price includes GST, stretching and delivery anywhere in Australia. Don't miss out so be fast....

VALE ARTISTS

We were deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Kudditji Kngwarreye, Dr George Ward Tjungurrayi and Kim Butler Napurrula. Quoting Aboriginal Art Directory 24Jan17 "Kudditji Kngwarreye died yesterday in Alice Springs after a long illness. Born in the 1920's, Kudditji Kngwarreye was half-brother to the famous Emily Kame Kngwarreye (dec. 1996). An Anmatyerre Elder and custodian of many important Dreamings in Utopia, including the Emu Dreaming, Kudditji was named one of the 50 most collectible artists in Australia in 2007". Art Mob has stocked his works since opening in April 2002 and recognises him as one of Australia's greatest colour field artists.

CRUISE SHIP VISITS TO HOBART

We are considering closing the gallery on these days. With about 800 visitors to the gallery from Ovation of the Seas over a 2 day visit recently we sold a total of $61 of small items. And to top it off, TasPorts has closed off vehicular access across the wharf for the 11 days leading up to the Australian Wooden Boat festival. This closure kills our business.
