JUNE 2017

CAPE COUNTRY ARTISTS OF LOCKHART RIVER

This exhibition gets June off to a fast start! Launching on June 1st, we have had only a few days to get these paintings ready for this year's second exhibition of Lockhart River art centre paintings. Euan and Catherine selected these works on site before returning to Tasmania late April. Be surprised by the breadth and depth of cultural expression – from guardian dingos to ghosts showing the way to water and rainforest dappled light to beach fauna. This should prove to be one of our best curated exhibitions!

ROY WIGGAN ILMAS

We have been rephotographing our early stock works and you will see much improved images on the first few early pages on our website. In particular, you will see the magnificent collection of ilmas by the late Bardi elder Roy Hunter Wiggan that have been archived since his exhibition with us in 2003. We have hung them in high spots around the gallery and they add a wonderful and powerful presence.

MORE EXHIBITIONS

"Kudditji Kngwarreye – Colourfield Classics" launches on June 29th to give a last hurrah to the financial year. An amazing selection of Tiwi Islander paintings from the Munupi art centre will feature later in July including one of the last available pieces by the late Natalie Puantulura.

DENNIS & GEORGE NONA

We, along with his Torres Strait islanders, welcome Dennis back to Badu Island. Our stock archive of 71 of his works is extensive and covers linocut prints, etchings and 2 bronze sculptures. We will be watching his new initiatives with interest. George has recently sent us an update on a large warup (ceremonial drum) that he has been making.

TAX BENEFITS

If you operate a small business (turnover under $10 million) you can receive an immediate 100% depreciation on any capital item that you purchase under $20,000. Here's your chance to add an impressive artwork to your office wall and tell your clients who's the cultured one! This will also help employee bonding and awareness of the power of indigenous culture and creativity. Remember that May 27th marked 50 years since the 1967 referendum that gave rights to our Aboriginal people. Celebrate this important milestone with an art purchase - don't delay! Feel free to ask us for suggestions or send us an image of your wall for us to advise.
